

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In this chapter, the researcher presents the conclusion of the study that has been discussed in the previous chapter. Moreover, the researcher also gives suggestion for related parties, among others: (1) writing lecturer, (2) the students, and (3) the further researchers.

5.1 Conclusion

The research shows that the third semester students of English Department of UMMAT made numerous of errors at sentence fragments in constructing descriptive text. It indicates that the students still have problem in constructing well-formed sentence in writing. Errors that were found in the students' writing can be categorized into four clusters by Bram namely: 1) the absence of subject, 2) the absence of verb, 3) the absence of a subject and a verb, and 4) the absence of subject in dependent clause.

Based on the finding of this research, there were 84 (eighty four) errors appeared in the students' writing. The highest frequency of error appeared in the students' writing was the absence of verb around 37 times or 44.04%. It means that the absence of verb was the most dominant error done by students. The second frequency of error that appeared in students' writing was the absence of subject with 25 times or 29.76%. The absence of verb indicates the students still confuse to determine the subject in writing descriptive text. The third frequency of error that appeared in students' writing was the absence of subject and a verb with 20 times or 23.80%. The absence of subject and a verb in the students' writing showed that students were notable to make sentences with the clear meaning without ambiguity. The fourth of error that appeared in the students' writing was the absence of subject in dependent clause with 2 times or 2.40%. The absence of subject in dependent clause in students' writing shows that the students still confuse to make complete sentences which contain subject, verb and complete though.

5.2 Suggestion

1. English Lecturer

It is difficult to expect the third year students to perfectly, even most of the higher semester are still having difficulties. The errors are caused by some complex factors, among others: lack of vocabulary, lack of grammar knowledge, etc. We cannot just blame the writing lecturers. Therefore it will be good if vocabulary, and writing lecturer work together in accordance with their respective roles to improve vocabulary, increase grammar knowledge, and writing lecturers can explore the writing abilities of students.

2. Students

In writing, the students should know the important of the sentence structure in writing. Many students made some errors in their writing. They still have problem in constructing well-formed sentence in writing. The students, currently have been aware of the errors they made in their writing. The students as the learner should learn from their error and do their best to improve the quality of their writing through serious learning and exercises.

3. Further Researcher

The further researcher is suggested to use the information from this research to conduct their research that relate with sentence fragments and they can make this research as their reference to conduct their research in order to make them easier to conduct their research. Future researchers are wishes to complete every mistake that they find in this research when they make the similar research.

My grandfather is the best grandfather in the world and he is a hero in our family. My grandfather was a very loving man, he loved his family more than anything he had known. His name is Ahmad Salam, he has six children and he has many grandchildren. He is a very tall person, who has white skin and black hair. My grandfather is the most person who cares me because, my grandfather often helped me when I was scolded by my mother and my father and often giving me money and buying food. My grandfather was a good man, he often advised us to learn to respect others and always told us to work hard so that we would not be lazy. I have a lot of memories of my grandfather, but what I will always remember of him is all of his habits. It is just the little things that he does that really stick in my mind. He should be a good example and he should guide you to the right path, not the wrong one.

I have never seen my father have a hobby because my father only spends his time praying and reading the Koran and being a teacher at SDN, even though every time I play football between villages my father always supports me.

I was a child who idolized my father why that was because for me he was the first person I saw in this world.

Without fathers, life would be bland, thankfully, we who still have fathers with various kinds of traits, basically without our fathers, we would not be able to live in this world.

"my house is the best place to stay"

I live in a village in the district of Bima. The name of the village where I live is Rite Kacamatan Ambalawi, Bima.

In the environment around my house, my neighbors are friendly and nice, although I rarely communicate with my family, I can tell because my parents see them while chatting with my parents. During the day it is indeed quiet maybe because there are a lot of activities but in the afternoon many children play ball in the street and many traders start selling, and at night many fathers sit and chat near the house and lots of traders selling fried rice, chicken noodles, etc.

If I personally rarely even play around my house somehow because maybe I am not too familiar with the people.

If you look at it from the point of view of cleanliness, I think the environment around my house is not so bad but there is a little bit that disturbs the eyes, none other than the sewage (sewer) there is no other word when looking at the gutter, which is BLACK. If I see it is average in every place like that. But I am happy with the people around me where every house now has its own garbage bin in front of each other's houses.

So the point is if you want a clean environment, move around and don't just demand to be clean, but always take out the trash.

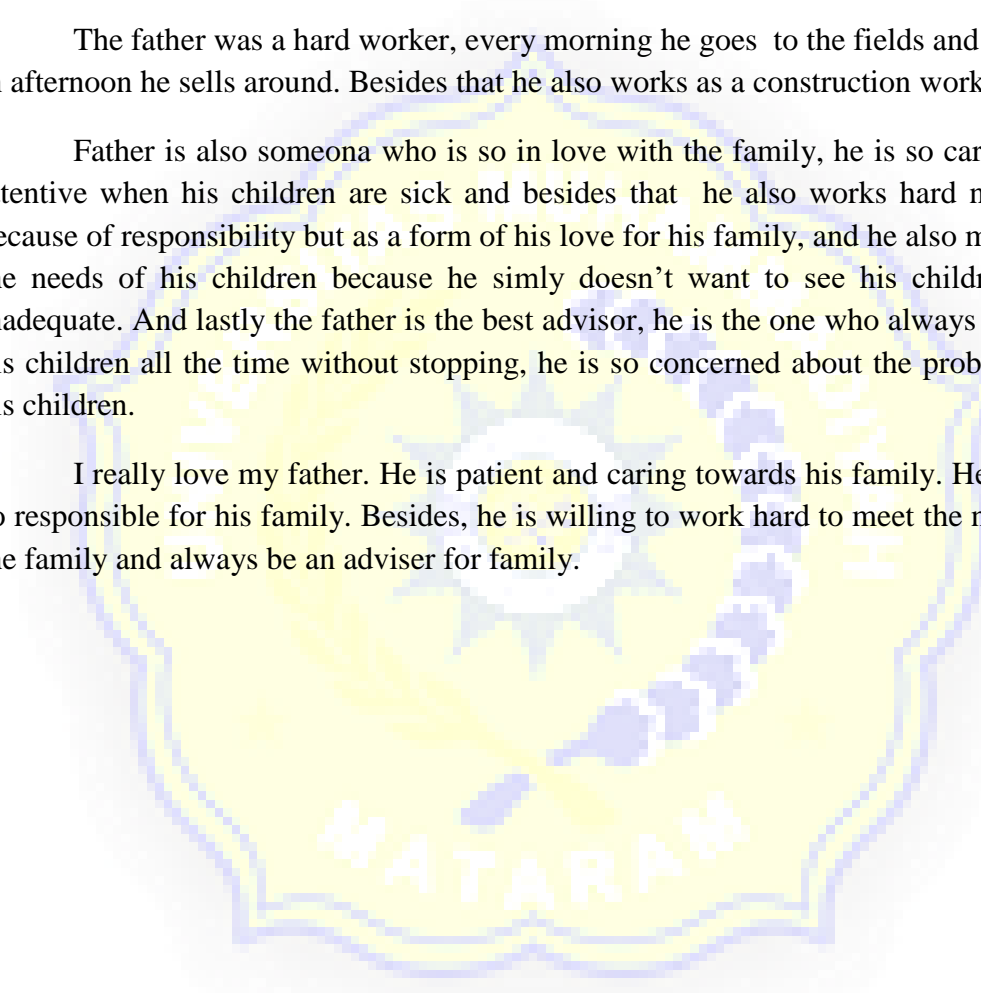

A father is one who person plays a major role in his family. He is also responsible for his wife and children.

father is the head of family , the first person to lead, foster, guide and support his wife and children. When his children do wrong, he is also responsible. He must also provide for the family's needs both in terms of education and other needs, such as money spending his wife and children, daily food needs and athores.

The father was a hard worker, every morning he goes to the fields and usually in afternoon he sells around. Besides that he also works as a construction worker.

Father is also someone who is so in love with the family, he is so caring and attentive when his children are sick and besides that he also works hard not only because of responsibility but as a form of his love for his family, and he also meets all the needs of his children because he simply doesn't want to see his children feel inadequate. And lastly the father is the best advisor, he is the one who always advises his children all the time without stopping, he is so concerned about the problems of his children.

I really love my father. He is patient and caring towards his family. He is also so responsible for his family. Besides, he is willing to work hard to meet the needs of the family and always be an adviser for family.

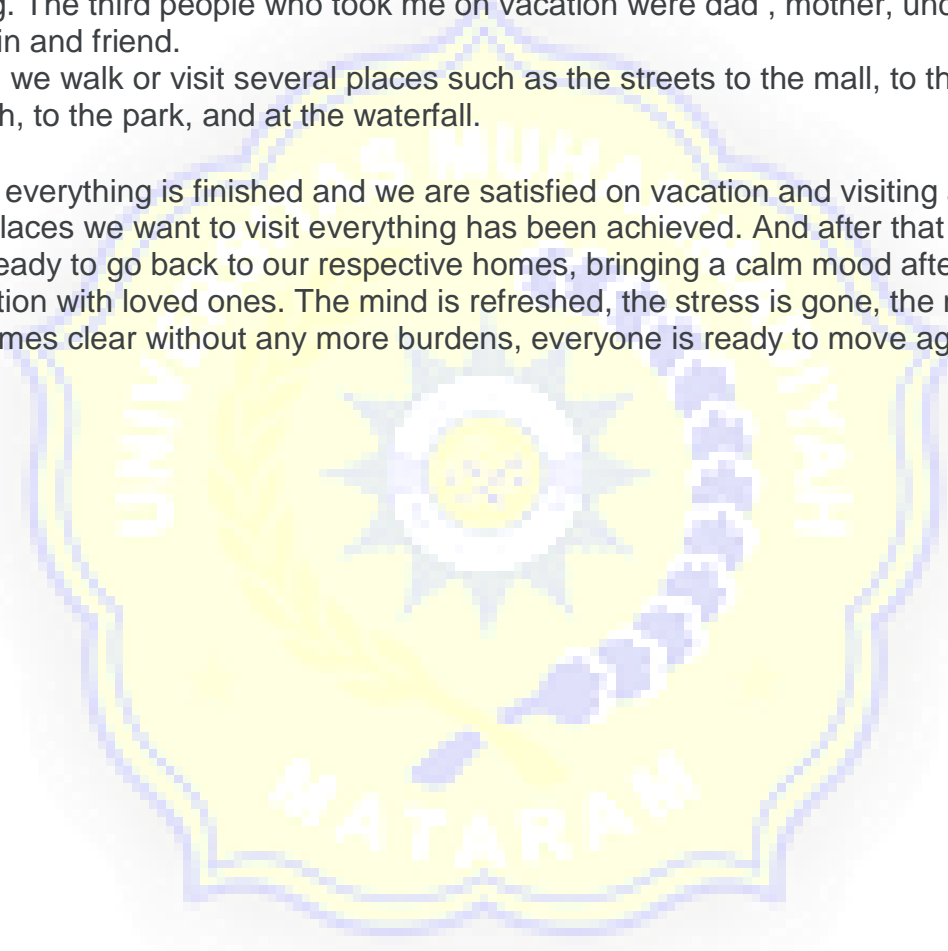

A holiday or holiday is a time when people spend time free from work or school. Vacation is a refreshing and recharging to relieve stress or for a moment forget the problems that make us stress.

First of all I planned activities that we had to do like we were riding, swimming shopping and playing soccer. The second thing we prepared was equipment that we had to use, like shoes to play soccer and wear t-shirts, swimwear for us to wear when we were in the pool, hats for us to wear when we were riding. The third people who took me on vacation were dad , mother, uncle, cousin and friend.

Then we walk or visit several places such as the streets to the mall, to the beach, to the park, and at the waterfall.

After everything is finished and we are satisfied on vacation and visiting all the places we want to visit everything has been achieved. And after that we get ready to go back to our respective homes, bringing a calm mood after a vacation with loved ones. The mind is refreshed, the stress is gone, the mind becomes clear without any more burdens, everyone is ready to move again.

Let's climb Tambora

Just west of nusa in the province of dompu, there is a very famous mountain, mount tambora. Tambora has a altitude of 2851 m.

Tambora is a great place to climb.

Tambora is an interesting place. Tambora has a very beautiful view because of the caldera. Tambora is one of the mountains that has the largest caldera in the world.

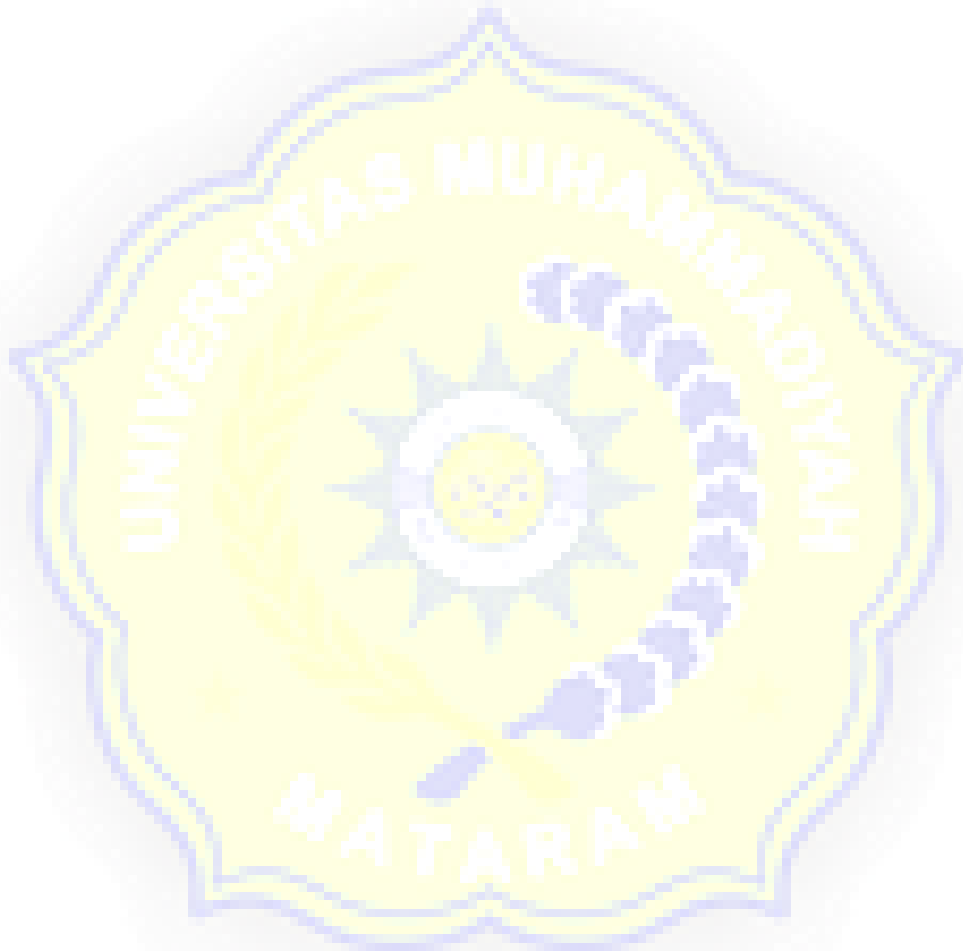

The caldera offers excellent beauty and appeal to the world around the mountains.

When you want to do the climb, there's some things you need to prepare for. Tents are used for the night. Sleeping bag to keep you warm. A small stove makes it easier for you to cook fast. The flashlight helps you to clear the way when you want to do samit. Fast food to relieve hunger on the way. The most important is personal medicine.

Tambora is one of the mountains that I recommend to you for mountain climbing. It has beautiful views and safe to clime there.

The best man ever

A short old man has dark skin, flat nose, and mustache. He is 52 years old. That's my father. The most important thing is he has a healthy body because abstaining from cigarettes, and I am saluted of that because most men is smoking, but he is not. I think he is the best man figure.

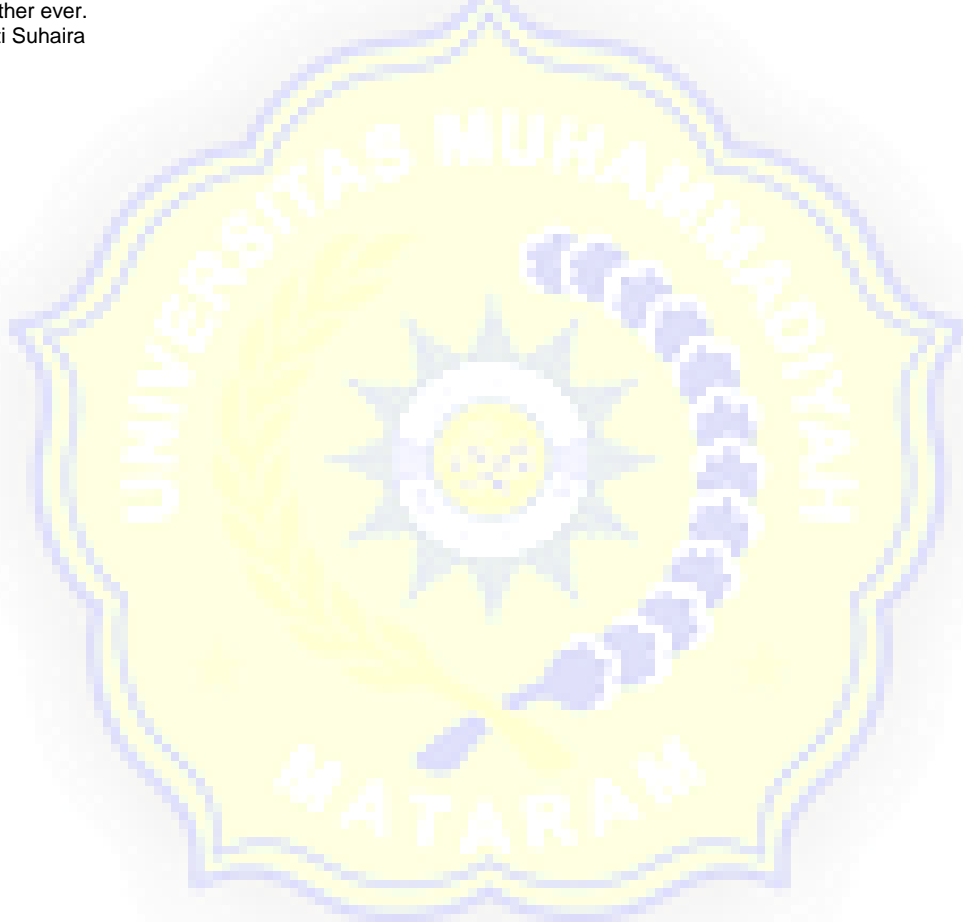

He is the hero of family. He always there for whoever, especially for our family. When our family member has a problem, he helps to solve the problem or gives advice. My father also workhard to provide for his family. He will work anything out. Being a builder, a carpenter, and working in the rice paddy field.

He is the best father for his children. I learn more from him. He gives a good example like eating uncomfortably, gratefully, and simply. He also the merciful one. When we made mistakes, he never hit or scolded us. He only advises us.

I do love my father. I will not find man like him who never makes me cry. I am proud have father like him. He is the best father ever.

Lionel Messi Is A Fantastic soccer Player

Barcelona is a great club. That is supported, of course by many trophies and equally important are the great players. As with the legendary Ronaldinho with his extraordinary grasp of strangulation. Then the duo mid laner Andres Iniesta and Xavi Hernandez may be very orderly in their tiki - taka game. And there's also Puyol as an all-powerful defender holding off Barcelona's rear line. But between them and any great player, I suppose a most outstanding and yet greatest pain is Lionel Messi.

Lionel Messi is a striker with a back number 10 in Barcelona. He became a captain who had the patience of facing colleagues, opponents, or referees. But he's mean and agile when he dribble the ball. That made him both feared and amazed by his opponent. One more, he is a goal press for Barcelona.

Apart from the field, Lionel Messi is also a man who really respect, loyalty and kindly. He loved his family very much. That can be confirmed when he posts photos or videos on his social media. Later on, Lionel Messi was a very loyal man. Whether it's against your spouse or against the Barcelona club. Since he went out with a women Antonella, Lionel Messi never looked for anyone else. And until now, they had three children. So does his loyalty to the club. He's been doing 14 years for Barcelona. And he always said in interviews that he would stay in Barcelona. Because Barcelona is home to him.

I have a passion for the personality of Lionel Messi. He had excellent playing skills on the field and an extraordinary love. I hope one day he will come to Indonesia and get selfie photos with him. The greatest player in the world.

My father is the best father and angel for my family

Who :My father he named rifaid, he has four children and one wif

Reason : because every day my father always worted hard to support his wif and children. My father only has one week a day for family. because of his work. As for as I know my father worked ona mountain/forest, his job was to replant trees that were cut down. Although my father is busy with his workhe still has time for family. Sometimes we often invite his children to joke. My father was welting to leave home to make a living for me, brother, sister, and my mother. I really love you dad.

The best family : even though my father only has one day a week at home. My father often tokes his children to joke, for example three is also a night market we are invitedto go i'm very happy, because my porentsreraly fight light like people another ald man.

The coconut (cocos nucifera) is the sole member of the clan. The meaning of the word coconut may refer to an entire coconut, seed, or fruit tree, that is botanically a fruit-bearing tree, not a beans tree.

There are different types of coconut palm, coconut kopyor and coconut green. The green coconut is known for such advantages as its wood that can be used as building materials and furniture, in addition to which the leaves of the coconut tree can be used as a roof and as a broom. The price given for the timber of this coconut tree may be up to three million rupiah while coconuts are sold for five thousand rupiah. The characteristics of the coconut tree are tall, long and rounded, with a brown trunk and green leaves and fruit.

So we can conclude that coconut trees are very useful to people and are easy to find because coconut trees in Indonesia are very widespread.
