

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSIONS AND SUGGESTIONS

5.1 Conclusions

The purpose of this study was to analyze how students develop ideas in writing and to explore their ability to produce texts through thematic progression. Based on the results of the previous chapter, we can draw the following conclusions from this study:

1. Most of students developed and organized their ideas in two ways, reiteration and zigzag. They used reiteration and zigzag pattern because they were easy to use by repeating the previous theme to be next theme. Zigzag pattern was used by taking the previous rheme to serve as the theme in the next clause. Moreover, thematic progression is useful for the writer and the readers. For the readers, it helps the reader to understand the text easily. Because texts are clear, well organized, and the texts were constructed in coherence form.
2. Furthermore, thematic progression had a positive impact on students' writing especially in developing their idea. Their interests in writing increased significantly after knowing thematic progression. Hence it can be used to develop students writing to be better.

5.2 Recommendations

After conducting this survey, the researchers would like to make some recommendations based on the results. First, lecture researchers suggest applying subject progression when writing lessons to alleviate possible difficulties in brainstorming. Second, due to the limited nature of this study, it focused only on the analysis of subject progression as students wrote the rewritten text. The researchers hope to have the next study on this topic, but other English skills such as listening, reading and speaking will be explored.

FIRST EXPERIENCE IN COLLEGE

My experience was when I first went to college, where I was confused about finding a class. I was looking for a class with a friend who has major as me. But in the end we found our class and the lecturer was already ahead of us, in a class we do self-introduction activities. It's fun to get know friends from different regions. Until finally they became close and fought until graduation later.

Title: First experience in college

My first experience in college is when I am get to know my new friend's with the around of university, which what I afraid of while bring a student at islamic boarding school was getting to know outside the world,new people, and new environments. Afraid of difficulties or not being able to do college questions, to get rid of all that fear is that I have to be able to adapt to the kamous environment and stone people.

 - d. First experience in college
 - e. Holidays during the pandemic

I had nothing special to do except playing online games alone or with my brother, cleaning up the house, and reading or watching YouTube. Sometimes I watched the news on TV. There were many negative events happening around us, such as people dying of covid-19, the bad days for business, and many layoffs and pay cuts started to depress everyone. All I see was bleak about the future if it didn't end soon. So, I always hope every single day that this all calamity will be over soon.

COVID-19

COVID-19 is one of the most extreme things that has happened in the world in recent years. It is named covid -19 because it occurred more precisely in the year two thousand and nineteen which resulted in such drastic changes to world civilization, especially in our country Indonesia. Covid -19 is one of the diseases caused by a deadly virus that threatens all human life. This has a negative impact on human activities, especially among workers, students and even toddlers to the elderly. So our country has so many rules to prevent the spread of the covid-19 virus, such as wearing masks when traveling, complying with health protocols, and even vaccinate.

Title : holiday during the pandemic

Last holiday wasn't that bad. I spent my day at home for about four weeks. I didn't go anywhere because of the corona outbreak. The pandemic was getting worse so I spent my time watching YouTube or playing online games with my friends. I usually woke up without in the morning and took a bath when my mother asked me. After that, I watched YouTube, or played online games.

First Experience In College

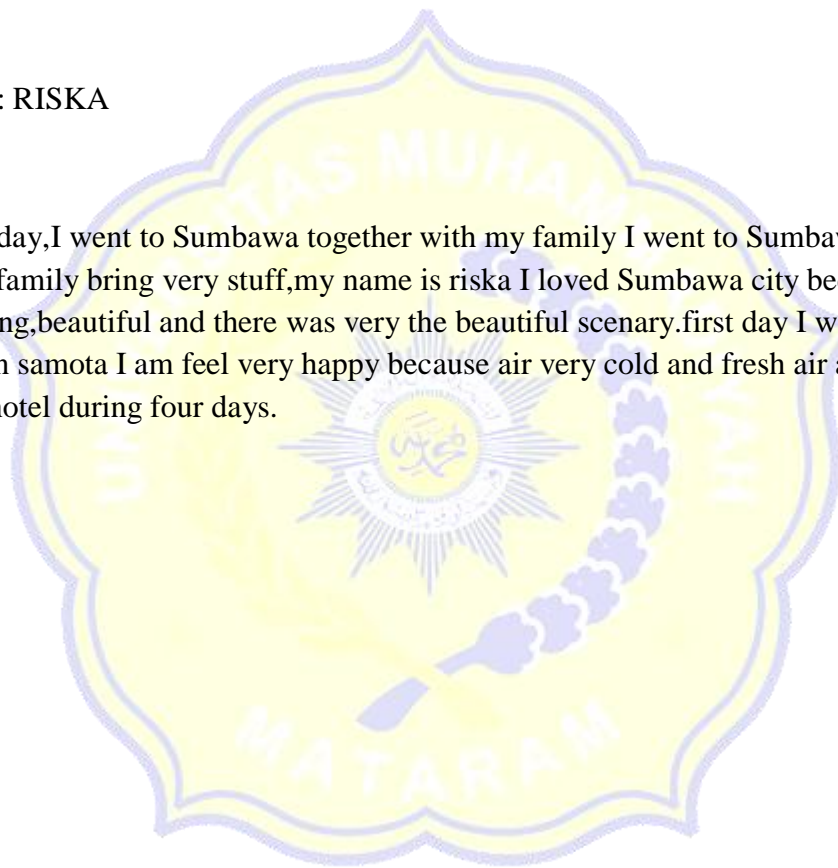

I still remember my first day in college, it was 2020 at Muhammadiyah University of Mataram, I felt very excited because I will meet some new friends and of course new experience, but in the first day when orientation program ceremony i was come late with some other new students and we would get punishment before we join to our group, then we have to chose one of three punishment like as dance, sing or speech with lokal language, so i chose dance and while i am dancing i fall on the floor and of course all of new students are laughing and i'am very shy about that.

After that ambarassing moments, i went to the classroom and i chose to sit in the back side, after a few minutes our senior ask me to introduce my self, i'am so nerveus and start doing what they asked me to do.
