

CHAPTER V

CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTION

In the wake of analyzing and discussing the issues in the previous chapter, researchers would like to draw some conclusions. Researchers have also made suggestions.

5.1 Conclusion

After analyzing the lyrics of the song composed by Radiohead, researchers came to a conclusion. The terms discussed are not immediately comprehensible when first heard. Listeners will interpret it differently.

There are so many terms that have different meanings between lexical and contextual meanings. After discussing the data, researchers found that the lyrics of Radiohead songs used lexical and contextual meanings. Researchers conclude that when reading terms, readers need to know not only the lexical meaning, but also the contextual meaning.

Lexical meaning here is the meaning of the term used in the song lyrics of "Radiohead" as found in a lexicon or dictionary. Researchers have declared them to be correct as written in common dictionaries. The researchers hope to show that the terms used in the lyrics of the "Radiohead" song in lexicons or popular dictionaries have very different meanings than they do in context.

different from the lexical meaning. Contextual meaning describes the actual meaning of a term according to the context in which it is used. In this case, the above situation is the lyrical term of "Radiohead." Therefore, this discussion requires you to experience interesting events independently in order to avoid misunderstandings and misunderstandings.

Researchers can argue that the lyrics of the song "Radiohead" tell a minimal story. To do. Because not everyone knows not only the lexical and contextual meaning, but also the short story. In addition, researchers provide information about the theme of this song. Romance themes in today's songs in demand among young people. Therefore, researchers chose the topic of romance in this study. Because the researchers felt that today's youth are more interested in the topic.

5.2 Suggestion

Regarding the importance of research and research results, researchers make several suggestions. Researchers hope that future researchers, especially young ones, will find this study valuable majoring in English at Muhammadiyah University of Mataram. It is important for future researchers should conduct their research using more than only the two conversation formats to expand semantic analyze in depth.

The researcher provides a method for analyzing song lyrics—not just those of "Radiohead" but also those of other songs. The researcher started by gathering the data in the next stage. Reading all the data sources is the next step. The next step was to choose the proper "Radiohead" song lyrics. Fourth, select five or a few of the song's lyrics. The final step is to methodically arrange the data according to the research's main points. The researcher initially clarifies about lexical meaning before explaining about contextual meaning in order to arrange the data.

Following the collection of the data, the researcher carried out an analysis in the manner described below. First, the researcher divides the data into two groups based on the quantity of songs offered. After then, each category's data will be presented, examined, and a conclusion drawn. Each piece of data was identified by the researcher before analysis. Second, the researcher employed a dictionary to interpret the song's lyrics' meanings. Explain the lexical and tangible meanings after that. Finally, depending on the findings, draw inferences.

The researcher finally understands that they were still far from ideal. In order to make this research even better, the researcher will take into consideration all of the constructive comments and advice.

Appendices

Radiohead :

Creep

Lyric

[Verse 1]

When you were here before
Couldn't look you in the eye
You're just like an angel
Your skin makes me cry
You float like a feather
In a beautiful world
I wish I was special
You're so fuckin' special

[Chorus]

But I'm a creep
I'm a weirdo
What the hell am I doing here?
I don't belong here

[Verse 2]

I don't care if it hurts
I wanna have control
I want a perfect body
I want a perfect soul
I want you to notice
When I'm not around
You're so fuckin' special
I wish I was special

[Chorus]

But I'm a creep

I'm a weirdo

What the hell am I doing here?

I don't belong here

Oh, oh

[Bridge]

She's running out the door

She's running out

She run, run, run, run

Run

[Outro]

Whatever makes you happy

Whatever you want

You're so fuckin' special

I wish I was special

But I'm a creep

I'm a weirdo

What the hell am I doing here?

I don't belong here

I don't belong here

Radiohead : True Love Waits

Lyric

[Verse 1]

I'll drown my beliefs
To have your babies
I'll dress like your niece
And wash your swollen feet

[Chorus]

Just don't leave
Don't leave

[Verse 2]

I'm not living
I'm just killing time
Your tiny hands
Your crazy kitten smile

[Chorus]

Just don't leave
Don't leave

[Verse 3]

And true love waits
In haunted attics
And true love lives
On lollipops and crisps

[Chorus]

Just don't leave
Don't leave
